

MIDDLE COTTAGE, 6 CHURCH STREET, AMBLESIDE LA22 0BU

Sleeps 4
3 Star equivalent rated

DESCRIPTION

This delightful Grade II listed cottage is situated in the heart of Ambleside where there are a good selection of shops and restaurants. It was refurbished to a high standard in 2005 since when we have received many favourable comments from a steady stream of satisfied visitors. A number of original features have been preserved to maintain the charm of the cottage.

There are a good selection of high and low level walks from the door which will please those of you who don't want to spend any more time than necessary in the car. Fairfield is one of the more demanding high level walks that starts and finishes in Ambleside. It will take you most of the day and leave some of you feeling pretty exhausted - but virtuous. Get your O/S maps out and plan your walks / outings to suit your abilities, ambitions and interests. You have a lot of choice.

At the end of the day relax with a cup of tea in the small sunny enclosed garden at the back of the cottage and if you decide to eat out you will find plenty of suggestions in the visitors' book.

ACCOMMODATION

The cottage has the benefit of full gas central heating.

There is a double bed in the front bedroom and two single beds in the back bedroom.

There is an open fire, flat screen television, DVD player and DVD's in the cosy sitting room / diner.

The fitted oak kitchen is well equipped and includes an electric oven and ceramic hob, microwave, fridge with freezer compartment and dish washer.

The three piece bathroom suite is supplemented by a heated towel rail and shaver point. There is a shower over the bath.

Being close to the lake and fells Ambleside is an ideal base for a holiday in the Lake District. There are numerous visitor attractions in the area and Windermere Lake, Rydal Water and Grasmere are all within easy walking distance. The other lakes, although a little further afield, are readily accessible.

If you decide to book we have every confidence that you will enjoy your stay as we regularly receive accolades from satisfied visitors.
